WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The centennial anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the Capitol was celebrated solemnly and impressively on the broad plaza that stretches out from the west front of the building this afternoon. One hundred years ago, on the day and hour Washington, as Grand Master of the Free and Accepted Order of Masons, wearing an apron and sash worn by the wife of Lafayette, laid the foundation stone of the great marble pile that is now the admiration of the world. This city was then a village, its avenues, buildings and parks were yet unmarked upon the map. Escorting by a small band of citizens, a troop of soldiers, his cabinet and many of the illustrious men of his day, Washington rode to the forest-crowned hill on which the Capitol now stands to lay the corner-stone of that structure. On the same route to-day President Cleveland was escorted by cavalry, infantry, bands and a vast multitude of persons.

The Goddess of Liberty, from her stand on the dome, looked down upon the gayly-decorated platforms on which, in addition to the orators of the day, there sat the members of both branches of Congress, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the members of the Cabinet and other dignitaries of the Government. Beyond she saw filling the plaza in front of the platform and extending far out into the radiating avenues a great concourse of citizens and civic soldiery.

On the right of the platform was stationed the Marine Band under the direction of Prof. Fancully and the chorus of 1,500 voices under the direction of Prof. Iowa.

Not since the second inauguration of President Cleveland have the thoroughfares of this city been so thronged as they were to-day. And not since then have there been such a display of civic and military organizations as that of to-day.

Long before the hour for the parade to start the inhabitants of Washington and the thousands of visitors from far and near began to assemble along the sidewalks of the streets through which it was to pass. They crowded the steps and porches of the public buildings; they were to be seen on the house tops and peering from hundreds of windows in private houses. They watched and waited until the parade passed by, and then there came an exodus from the streets and houses and hundreds of thousands of people gathered where the exercises were held.

And while the people were gathering along the line of march there was a perfect pandemonium of martial bands leading the way for soldiers and sailors and civic organizations to the rendezvous whence the parade was to start. The tramp of the marching bands, the rattle and clank of the cavalry and the rumbling of the cannon of the artillery, mingled with the clang of the cable-car gongs and the shrill of the bugles giving orders to their commands. Every thing seemed to be in a hopeless tangle of confusion and the thousands who stood and waited watching the parade, or who could ever be brought out of such chaos.

The parade started from the White House and here it was the multitude of sightseers who were the dominant feature. The crowd was a sea of heads and arms, and the White House to the east front of the Capitol. Gen. Ordway, the commander of the United States Marine Band, and his staff with a squadron of United States Cavalry acting as an escort for President Cleveland, followed the orator of the day, William Wirt Henry of Virginia, the Governors of the various States, the Chairman of the National Board of Education and the specially invited guests—Troop A of the District National Guard bringing up the rear.

After this escort came the first division proper, under the command of General Robert Boyd. This division was composed of civic organizations.

The second division was under command of W. C. Gibson. It was composed of the Veterans of the Mexican War, Old Guard, Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans and the United States Marine Band.

The third division was composed entirely of United States regiments and District of Columbia and militia units.

The fourth and last division of the parade had for its commander Marshal James H. Richardson. It was composed of the various members of the District of Columbia and militia organizations from other parts of the country.

Arriving at the Capitol the parade was disbanded and the ceremonies began on the stand erected on the east front of the Capitol. There was an ovation for the United States Marine Band. Rev. Wm. Wirt Henry, Bishop of Maryland, invoked the blessing of God, after which a Te Deum was sung by a chorus of 1,500 voices.

INTRODUCTORY SPEECH AT THE BEGINNING OF THE CELEBRATION.

When the chorus had finished Lawrence Gardner, the chairman, arose and spoke as follows:

LOST THE GOLD

Train Robbers' Booty Escapes a Pursuing Party.

The Money Sent in a Trunk Over the South Shore Road.

A TIP LEADS TO AN EXCITING CHASE ON A SPECIAL ENGINE.

Two Firemen in Custody Charged With Complicity in the Crime—Their Names Are Not Given and the Extent of Their Connection Is Not Known—One Resists Arrest Desperately, But Unavailingly—A Unique Robbery Ends the Usual Way.

HANCOCK, Mich., Sept. 18.—To-day it was thought that the whole of the $70,000 taken by the Boston train robbers had been recovered and in a most singular manner. Meanwhile the plot deepens for it is becoming evident that the bandits and confederates among the railway men themselves. Two of these (names) have been arrested.

The express car of the Mineral Range passenger train, which left Hancock at 9 o'clock Friday morning for Calumet, was "held up" and robbed by bandits a half mile from Boston station, about half an hour later. The robbers secured $70,000 in cash, money intended for the employees of the Calumet and Hecla copper mine, for whom Saturday was pay day.

The express car was in charge of Messenger D. W. Hogan and there were no special guards. The money was sent according to the usual practice the day before pay day at the big mine.

The train was going along at the usual speed and was within half a mile of the station called Boston, five miles from here, when a man stepped into the middle of the track and waved his arms. The engineer quickly applied the brakes and the train stopped. Two men jumped out of the cab window and were followed by two more of the robbers, who came to the front of the engine and got on the front end of the express car. The robbers secured $70,000 in cash, money intended for the employees of the Calumet and Hecla copper mine, for whom Saturday was pay day.

The follow-up pushed the engineer into the corner of the cab, grabbed the six brass lever and pulled it slightly open to keep the engine moving slowly. He opened the door and the robbers jumped out. The engineer quickly applied the brakes and the train stopped. Two men jumped out of the cab window and were followed by two more of the robbers, who came to the front of the engine and got on the front end of the express car. The robbers secured $70,000 in cash, money intended for the employees of the Calumet and Hecla copper mine, for whom Saturday was pay day.

When the robbers had secured their booty they were smart enough to know that it was impossible to successfully escape the gold without the aid of the Calumet and Hecla mine. THE WHOLE STORY

The Boston Train Robbery Described by an Arrested Participant.

MAQUETTE, Mich., Sept. 18.—An important arrest in connection with the express robbery at Hancock was made by the Michigan State Police at Marquette.

Liberty was taken into custody upon telegrams requesting the Sheriff of Houghton County. This arrest has led to the apprehension of seven others here and the recovery of a large portion of the booty.

Liberty is a locomotive fireman by occupation but last job when a general reduction was made in the operating force of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Road.

He has been intimately associated with Butler, King, Chetew and hard characters of the underworld in his native city.

It was known to have been in company with Butler at Hancock slightly before the robbery, but he was not arrested until yesterday. It was learned by officers that he was at his home when the order for his arrest was issued.

Early this morning he was placed aboard the Houghton passenger train and handed over to the officers of great excitement. Before the train had started he was taken into custody.

A BOY'S FEARS.

They Hear Conspirators Talking of Deep Laid Plans.

The Emperor of Austria to Be Killed in the Wreck of His Train.

INVESTIGATION DISCLOSES THAT PREPARATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE.

But the Conspirators Come to Naught, Unless There May Be Some Hangings—The Emperor at the Military Maneuvers in Hungary—The Pope's Position in Italy Growing More Difficult—A Retreat to Spain Likely.

VIENNA, Sept. 18.—If reports are to be believed, plans have been discovered of an attempt upon the life of Emperor Francis Joseph. Full details of the affair have been carefully hushed up by the police, but enough is known to justify people in believing that there is no doubt that an attempt was to be made to kill the Emperor.

This story obtains publicity to-day through the Magyar Hirap, a newspaper published in Budapest, the capital of Hungary, and is about as follows:

A Roumanian boy overheard a strange conversation between two men, which led him to believe that an attempt was to be made upon the life of the Emperor. The boy was too far away from the conspirators to gather exactly what was said, and the words he did hear so alarmed him that he ran to his father and informed him of what he had overheard. After much deliberation and consultation with their neighbors, the parents of the Roumanian lad went to the nearest police depot and informed the official in charge of what the boy had overheard.

The reluctance of the boy's parents to communicate with the police was due to the fact that they dreaded being arrested and in some manner held as prisoners, if not on the charge of being concerned in the plot, at least as witnesses until the conspirators were turned out to be the case, for the boy and his parents were promptly placed under arrest pending investigation into the lad's strange tale. The latter's story was then investigated by the police and found to be founded on fact. The conversation which the boy had overheard was to the effect that the Emperor would be killed, together with his suite, at a certain point along the railway, and that the Emperor would be killed by the railway.

It is suggested that the outrage was due to the anti-Austrian preaching of the local pope of the village, in Transylvania, inhabited by the boy and his parents, where the majority of the inhabitants are Roumanians. The latter, it is claimed, are oppressed by the Magyar. Then again it is claimed the outrage was the result of the recent agitation of the Young Magyar party, who are known to be a strong anti-German feeling and the spread of revolutionary ideas.

It is probable that the exact facts in connection with the plot against the Emperor's life will never be known, as it is the policy of the authorities to make as little as possible out of the affair; but the main facts just given are said by the Magyar Hirap to be correct.

AN OFFICIAL DETAIL.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 18.—It is officially denied here that the Russian Government intends to issue a new 4 per cent loan in France about the time the Russian fleet visits the Channel. Reports circulate here to the effect that the Russian Government is about to issue a new 4 per cent loan in France about the time the Russian fleet visits the Channel.

There are people who claim that the official denial of the Government's intention to issue a new 4 per cent loan in France about the time the Russian fleet visits the Channel is a mere ruse to deceive the public. THE POPE AND AMERICA.

Reopeners of the Question of the Pope's Removal From Rome.

Rome, Sept. 18.—The Pope has sent a letter to Mr. Satoili, the Papal delegate to the United States, in which he treats of American religious questions. Among other things referred to in the letter is the question of the Pope's removal from Rome.

On Sept. 10, the twenty-third anniversary of the occupation of Rome by Italian troops, the Pope will order an extraordinary collection throughout Italy for the St. Peter's pence fund. The collection will be ordered as a protest against the anti-church policy of the Government.

Signor Sant' Maria, Minister of Justice and Ecclesiastical Affairs, has resigned his office. The reason given for his resignation is that he is not in accord with the Government's plans for re-opening the conflict with the Holy See in view of the increasing symptoms of hostility displayed by the Government, which are attributed to the Pope's friends.

FALL HATS AND BONNETS.
Beautiful Styles Shown at Sonnenfeld's Op-nings—Some Fashions.

An ideal fall day gladdened the hearts of the people to-day, and the streets were thronged all day long with fashionable folk intent upon a critical inspection of the hats and bonnets, opened up to-day for the first time. At Sonnenfeld's windows they all paused with one accord, to admire the tasteful display which he has so happily designed for the season. The hats and bonnets are of all styles, from the simple to the elaborate, and are of all materials, from the plain to the rich.

REGISTERED AS A BOY.
A Parisian Wedding Delayed on Account of a Peculiar Buncher.

From the New York Telegram.
A Parisian wedding ceremony was interrupted at St. Denois, a Parisian suburb, the other day, by a singular manner. The bride in her white dress and wreath of orange blossoms, was escorted to the Town Hall, where the public official, whom we call the registrar, was in attendance with his tri-colored scarf of office around his waist.

At the moment when the young lady was asked to give her name, she uttered a cry of surprise. She was casting her eye over the registrar, and she saw that he was a young man, and she was not prepared to give her name to a young man. She was not prepared to give her name to a young man.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1893.

WORK TO-DAY.

BISHOP JANSSENS OF BELLEVILLE ADDRESSES THE DELEGATES.

The Report of the President of the Society Shows it to Be in a Strong Condition Numerically and Financially—The Chairman of the Various Committees—Yesterday's Ceremonies.

The thirty-eighth annual convention of the German Roman Catholic Central Society of North America began its session proper at 9 o'clock this morning in the school hall of St. Peter and Paul's Church, at Eighth and Allen avenues.

Prior to beginning their business session the delegates participated in a religious high mass in St. Peter's Church, Rev. Fr. Koerber of St. Paul, Minn., officiated as celebrant, Rev. Hegon of Belleville, Ill., as deacon, Rev. Groff of St. Peter and Paul's Church, was subdeacon and Rev. Geers of the same parish master of ceremonies.

After mass the society assembled in the school hall, which had been decorated for the occasion with floral festoons and the mingled flags of the United States and Germany, while over the stage hung the papal colors, crossed with the stars and stripes. Banners bearing the coats-of-arms of the different States of the Union hung on the inner walls, while appropriate mottoes in German and English gave life to the other decorations and spoke of the mission of the society.

After Hon. Adolph Weber had called the convention to order and the secretaries had begun the preliminary exercises, Rt. Rev. Bishop Janssens of Belleville, Ill., accompanied by several priests, entered the hall and was greeted with round after round of applause.

Proceeding to the stage he was introduced by the President and spoke to the Verein in response to the hearty outburst which followed the introduction. The Bishop spoke as follows:

BISHOP JANSSENS' REMARKS.
"It was my intention to leave for home last night, but I could not decline the invitation of your committee to visit you in this your first meeting. I hope that your deliberations will be conducted in the right spirit, in the spirit of unity and brotherly love. You are a Catholic men, therefore you have at heart the welfare of the Church. The society in the United States has been so powerful and strong an ally of the Church as the center of the German community in America. Continue, then, to do good to the faithful sons of the Catholic Church, the divine institution created by the Almighty for the salvation of our souls. Then your society will never cease to grow and prosper."

President Weber responded for the society in a few words, and then the reception of the Bishop, the divine institution created by the Almighty for the salvation of our souls. Then your society will never cease to grow and prosper.

The Chairman of the committees are: On Constitution of the Central Verein—F. Fisher of Kentucky. On Constitution of Local Societies—Robt. Alstetter of Ohio.

On Auditing Books of Financial Secretary—J. Schuch of Iowa. On Resolutions—Gustav Kalsar of Missouri.

On Complaints—Rev. O. Koerber of Minnesota. On Printing—Theo. Fehlig of Missouri.

On Publishing Business—J. Jacob of Indiana. Mr. H. J. Spannhorn announced that in the morning the Central Verein had sent $200 as Peter's Pence to Rome during the year.

The Wisconsin delegation presented as a motion a long declaration of principles which was adopted by the assembly. It was announced by the President that a number of complaints on various matters were being received by the committee on resolutions to the central body. An animated discussion followed, some of the delegates protesting against the action of the committee for arbitration; others, whose position prevailed, that they be first read in committee.

The remainder of the session was consumed in the consideration of these complaints, which were of a very trivial character. There was considerable difference of opinion on adjournment, but finally it was decided to reassemble at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The announcement was made that the delegates of the Wisconsin delegation of the Marquette Club, after this afternoon's session, would be in St. Louis for the purpose of visiting the city.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Yesterday's exercises began with the march of 1,800 men from the St. James Hotel to St. Peter and Paul's Church, Seventh and Allen avenues. Marshal Christ Hille led the procession, followed by a band, and the Executive Committee of the Verein.

The church was decorated with flowers, flags and appropriate emblems. Bishop Janssens of Belleville celebrated pontifical high mass, with Vicer-General Muehleisen as assistant. Fr. Schaefer of St. Nicholas Church, deacon; Fr. Schilling of the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, sub-deacon, and Fr. Geers of St. Peter and Paul's Church, master of ceremonies. Fr. Michael Richard, O. S. F., Provincial of the Franciscans, officiated at the altar.

The second part of the programme took place last night at Exposition I, and the first part of the programme took place this morning at Exposition II. The programme was a series of religious exercises, including a high mass, a pontifical high mass, and a pontifical high mass.

Struck Her With a Rock.
Mary Tucker, who lives at 1308 North Seventh street, got into a quarrel to-day at the above number with Jack Lynch, when the latter struck her on the head with a rock, which caused her to fall. She was taken to the St. Louis Dispensary, where Dr. Flispatrick attended the wound and sent her home.

Fatigue and exhaustion overcome by Bromo-Seltzer. Contains no opiate.
Letting Well Showed Alone.
From Truth.
"You live happily with your husband?"
"Yes, but don't, for heaven's sake, tell him."

FOUR BIG NIGHTS.

Programme of the Exposition for the Evening Week.

THE BRANCH GUARDS TO DRILL THERE
THIS EVENING.

Sig. Giuseppe Campanari, the Baritone, and Miss Inez Carusi, the Harpist, to assist the Band This Week in Intertaining Audiences in Music Hall.
Facts About the Big Show.

Early Monday morning is perhaps the best time to visit the Exposition. The vast hall and galleries then present something of the appearance of a banquet hall deserted, but the likeness is transitory. It is effaced in a short hour by the army of attendants and employees who begin to swarm into the great front doors as early as 7:30, and are quickly at work removing the evidences of the presence of the multitude. Old programmes and bits of paper vanish from the floor as if swept away by a gust of wind and dusting brushes flutter like butterfly wings. By the time the earliest visitors arrive the place has been transformed from the top of a scene of past festivities to the orderly and inviting reception place for the thousands who have not yet visited the mammoth show.

Last week was a most prosperous one for the Ex and the big crowds and added interest gave it an impetus that would send it along for weeks even if there were no more elaborate programmes to attract sight-seers.
Everybody was pleased with the entertainments and display, and when that the crowd the crowds that follow are of ever increasing proportions. The management is more than pleased with results thus far and is up and doing in order to avoid the possibility of losing the tide that leads on to fortune. The programme to be presented hereafter will not be allowed to suffer by comparison, so that persons who have visited the Ex need not hesitate to go there again.

There will be four big nights this week.
This is Branch Guards' day, and this evening the crack military organization of that name will march into the great hall and drill for the delectation of the visitors. There will be martial music accompanying the steady tread of the soldiery, and no doubt the attendance of ladies will be unusually large. The Branch Guards, as everybody knows, thoroughly drilled, and on this occasion will appear with full ranks. They will go through their evolutions for twenty-five minutes, and then give themselves up to the pleasure of the occasion. There will be many military critics there to watch the performance, and the command will be on its mettle to meet the test. The presence of the soldiery is expected to prove a strong drawing card.

To-morrow will be German Roman Catholic day in honor of the German Catholic Convention delegates now visiting the city. The hosts that fill the hall will all be sembled there again to-morrow evening to see the sights. There will probably be no speech-making as the visitors have already heard the Governor of the state and the Mayor of the city. But they will be shown through the galleries and nave, and observe the wonders of art, manufactures and machinery with which the exhibition abounds, and they will hear several elaborate concerts by Sousa's unexcelled band, and will listen to the finest singers in the country and they will be made to feel that it is a good thing to hold their conventions in St. Louis, where alone such treats are to be enjoyed.

The Exposition will be invaded by the military again on Thursday night.

This time the warriors will be veterans who have fought the fight and are resting on their laurels, instead of aspirants for honors on the field of battle. The association of the veterans of the regular army and navy will be the guests of honor and the night will be set apart for their entertainment.
They will be the center of observations for the other visitors, who will thus be given an opportunity to compare the men who have been through the ordeal of war with those only filled with untiring ardor.
The music of the occasion will be martial, and many of the airs that stirred the hearts of the veterans during the war will be rehearsed. It is expected that one of the largest crowds of the season will be present.

A just tribute to a man who has done as much perhaps to make the Exposition of past years successful as any other will be rendered on Saturday evening. It will be Glimore day, and a memorial to the famous band leader who formerly wielded the baton on Music Hall stage with such wonderful effect. Saturday will be the first anniversary of Patrick Glimore's death, and it will be appropriate that for one evening the memory of the public. Only Glimore music will be played by Sousa's band, and this will give the adoring public an opportunity to contrast their effective. Mr. O'Neil Ryan will deliver a panegyric upon Glimore.

This week and henceforth the last concert will take place at 8:30 o'clock, continuing until 10:30. The other concerts will occur at the usual hours.

Miss Marcelle Lindh's (the soprano) engagement having terminated last Saturday, her place will be filled by Sig. Giuseppe Campanari of New York. Sig. Campanari is without question one of the greatest harpists since the days of the great Italian stone singers in the country. Miss Inez Carusi, harpist, will also be one of the new attractions of the week. She is said to be almost without an equal on that instrument.

The band programme for this evening will be:
1. Overture, "The Girl I Left Behind Me."
2. Valse, "Infants." Edward J. Cory.
3. Le Caprice, "La Polka." Kreutzer.
4. Le Marche des Diables, "The Diables."
5. Diverses, "The Diables." Kreutzer.
6. Marche, "The Diables." Kreutzer.
7. Marche, "The Diables." Kreutzer.
8. Marche, "The Diables." Kreutzer.
9. Marche, "The Diables." Kreutzer.
10. Marche, "The Diables." Kreutzer.

M. B. Hilmer & Co.'s Display.
Much credit is due to M. B. Hilmer & Co. for their marked enterprise in making an elaborate display of the Swift "Jersey Butterine." Since the Exposition opened there have been thousands of people served daily with this fine product on cracker, biscuit and other food. The product is praised by the best medical men and others who have been privileged to know of it, as producing the finest and purest butterine in the market. The butterine is said to be the best of the butterine and should not be deceived.
Every genuine package is square wrapped in paper, on which is printed the familiar picture of a handsome milkmaid leading a Jersey cow, and also the words,
"Swift & Company, Fine Butterine, Chicago."

Artistic Display of Fine Groceries.
The Bauer Grocer Co.'s exhibit has proven a powerful lodestone to the Exposition, as it has drawn vast crowds afternoon and evening.
Samples of Franco-American soups,
"White House" Java and Mocha coffee, Heinz's pickles and sweet-clover buckwheat cakes, with maple syrup, are almost continuously served to callers. The company reports the free distribution of $400, or three and one-half cents of the famous Heinz pickles since the opening. The whole display is an artistic one.

Probably no exhibit this year has attracted more attention than the concrete plant in full operation erected by the Hanley

THE WEEK'S AMUSEMENTS.

Bills Presented at the Different Theaters—

At the Olympic Theater to-night Charles Frohman's company will present for the first time in this city Belasco and Fyle's successful play, "The Girl I Left Behind Me." This play has had a phenomenal run in the East, and is described as remarkably strong. It is a picture of army life on the frontier during the days of Indian warfare, and is full of strong situations. The advance sales indicate crowded houses throughout the week.

A large audience greeted Willie Collier at the Grand Opera-house last night, the play being "Boss and Boss." This play is of course familiar to theater-goers, but since it was last seen here it has undergone many changes and a number of additions that have made it a decided success. The play has been made. As the Judge Collier is as popular as ever, and Sherman Wade was excellent in the part of Charlie Ross.
Helen Collier was very amusing as Annie Rooney, Edward Redway made a good Birdie Ross, and Louis Collier made a decided hit as Fybi. Among the songs that were applauded with particular enthusiasm may be mentioned "Four Dear Little Minks" and "Tolly Oh." The play has never been seen to greater advantage.

At many years since Kate Claxton made a great success in the character of Louisa in "The Two Orphans," and so admirably that she always played this part that no one has attempted to rival her in it. Those who saw her at the Hazan last night recognized the fact that she had lost none of her old-time powers and skill in the portrayal of this character. As the blind girl, lost and aided only by a cripple, helpless as she herself was, Miss Claxton drew tears from scores of those in the audience. Her acting was most effective and artistic throughout. As Pierre, the cripple, Water Vincent was very effective, especially in the snowstorm scene, and the combat with Jacques Frouhard, a part well acted by W. R. Walters. The play was well acted and all the company showed marked ability.

At Pope's "Braving the World" opened a week's engagement last night. Those who are fond of melodrama of an exciting kind will find what they want in "Braving the World." There is a murder, a nurse, a hair-breadth escapes and many sensational situations, ending, of course, with the triumph of virtue and the punishment of crime. Agnes Earle did some very clever work as Sprightly, and Albert Denier was a very good Bobby. The piece was well acted and the performance was excellent.

The realistic railroad drama, "The Limited Mail," which has long been a favorite in the city, was presented last night at Havlin's.
Miss Earle, who was seen here in the same play last week, took the part of Louisa and threw a great deal of vigor into her acting.
Nellie Harland, and Minnie Fales an acceptable conductor. The scenic effects, especially the stoppage of the mail train, were excellently managed.

The City Club Spectacular Burlesque company opened a week's engagement at the Standard Theater yesterday. This company is one of the best of its class on the road, and the large audience testified its appreciation by round after round of applause. Among the performers most worthy of mention are Flores, Ritchie, whose rendition of plantation melodies was excellent; Lew Hawkins, the negro comedian; Henry and John Dillon, the comic singers; Ruby Marion, the dancer, and Fanny Everett in her character changes.

The Germania Theater opened the season last night under decidedly unfavorable conditions. For some time past Mr. Emil Wurster, under whose management the theater has been, has been annoyed by the demands made upon him for payment of debts alleged to be due from Wagner and Busch, his predecessors. Members of the Musicians' mutual aid association are creditors to the amount of about $1,000, and they refused to play unless the indebtedness was liquidated. Last night Mr. Wurster entered into an agreement with the President by which in return for signing the association, the last night there were no union musicians on hand. Further than this a man named Norris, who has been engaged as chief stage hand, and who is also a member of the order, became excited by too free libations and began to demolish things on the stage.
He destroyed a number of plants and did some damage to the scenery before he was rejected. In spite of these drawbacks a very good performance of "Die Heiden Lenore" was given. Mr. Wurster hopes to arrange his difficulties with the musicians in a short time.

AFTER THE BALL.

Guests at a Dance Have Trouble on Their Way Home.

A private dancing class had a little party at Central Turner Hall last night. After the fun was over, Louis Laventure, who acted as escort to Miss Lillian Maloney, and Michael Fury were going north on Third street. Just as they were about to enter the street, a Pine when a dispute arose between Fury and Laventure on one side and an unknown man and John Cummings on the other. Cummings insisted that Laventure, Fury and Miss Maloney knew him, but they declared that they did not. The man wanted to associate with him. A fight followed and Cummings was being thrashed by Laventure and Fury, when the unknown friend of Cummings interfered. The latter soon broke away on the run, followed by Fury and La-venture, and at length reached Chestnut street.
The unknown drew a revolver and fired at his pursuers without effect. After a shot was fired all the participants disappeared.
Mr. Will Heitz, who accompanied Miss Viol Strass from the party, witnessed the affair, but had no hand in the fight.

and that the people may get the earth back from each Sunday in the morning. The movement is said to have the support of prominent single taxers.

Conductor Archbishop Kain and Priests
Will Arrive in the Morning.

No new phase was presented to-day in the local Vicar General Imbroglio. The priests received no word from the Conductor or the eminent prelates, assembled at Dubuque, Mo., and they therefore said and did nothing. It was expected that Mrs. Smith, Tobyn, Fenion and Walsh, who went to Dubuque Friday night to attend the archiepiscopal investiture services, and especially to see Mr. Skoloff, would return to-day, but they did not materialize. Their coming is awaited as anxiously as the advent of the Conductor Archbishop Kain, whose welfare is so deeply concerned. The conductor and the priests will certainly return to-morrow morning.

THE FAIR EXTENSION.

It Will Be Discussed by the Directors in Meeting To-Night.

World's Fair Extension, Sept. 18.—The question of extending the fair until Jan. 1 will come up for discussion at the meeting of the directors to-night. They will also have up for consideration the question of reducing the Sunday admission fee to 25 cents. Since advocates of extension began to voice their arguments there has been considerable opposition to the plan. Those who oppose it say that in November and December the cold winds will rush in from the lake, and snow will cover everything. This will serve to keep visitors away from the fair. Besides this the extension will be compelled to bear the enormous expense of putting heating apparatus in all the buildings. It is also argued that the attendance will fall to a low mark, and will not be sufficient to pay the running expenses of the fair. All the different phases of the question will be thoroughly discussed to-night, and it is decided that the directors will meet again at once to ask Congress to pass the needed legislation.

Those who oppose the 25 cent Sunday rate say that the Exposition will receive a greater amount by the change and would be put to the expense of caring for an increased number.

At noon to-day the big Columbian liberty and peace bell rang out in honor of the anniversary of the adoption by Congress of the constitution Sept. 17, 1787. As the anniversary fell on Sunday, it was thought best to hold the exercises on Monday. Shortly before 12 o'clock to-day President T. W. Palmer, Director General Davis, followed by the members of the exposition, national and state commissioners, marched to the plaza west of the Administration building, where the liberty bell is swung. President Palmer made a patriotic address, in harmony with the occasion, and at exactly 12 o'clock rang the bell. Firing salutes were also made by Director General Davis and others.

"The exhibition of the Union was commemorated as it was Nevada day; also the birth of George Reed of Delaware in 1788, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The exercises attracted a large crowd of persons who were massed together on the plaza. The Sunday attendance at the fair is increasing. Larger crowds are expected on the Sabbath hereafter. There is talk by some of the managers of putting more life into the White City. The only place of attraction to Sunday visitors, the rest of the exposition being silent as the tomb. Many of the exhibits have been closed and outside of the art institute a general inhospitable air has prevailed. It has been argued that the opening has been forced upon the exposition by the action of the court and should be made to make Sunday profitable. As far as it has been a losing day. The steps that are to be taken are, and inviting people to come by an offer of a proper welcome. Yesterday's paid attendance was 100,000. It is believed that the numbers can be swelled to 100,000.

CARONDEL NEWS.

Called Him by a Slightly Name—Other Items.

Charles Jacobs, a 16-year-old boy, was up before Justice Meegan this morning for thrashing Elmer Blades, who is several years younger. Charles said that he whipped young Blades because he called him "St. Jacobs" and "St. Jacobs" is a name with various scriptural lessons. The justice advised the pugilistic youth that he should not take the law into his own hands and assessed him the costs of the case.

Lacy Merrill swore out a summons against Wm. Halley, charged with disturbing the peace. Halley is something of a dog fancier and is generally accused of causing trouble by some sort of a canine protegee.

Last night a complaint was made by a woman who lives in the city of a complaint against a man who had been in the city for some time. The woman said that she had been in the city for some time and had been in the city for some time.

Mr. Jesse Johnson, colored, called on the police this morning and requested that he arrest his husband, who he alleged had been in the city for some time. The police said that they would arrest him if he was in the city.
